Journal of Translation. JOT. God's Word Became Our Poetry and Sang within Us: Facilitating Contextualisation through Indigenous Poetry.

Many cultures around the world esteem poetry as a medium for communicating truth and preserving traditions, and which can impact peoples' cognitive, affective and volitional dimensions of life. This exploratory project discusses the necessity of effectively contextualising theology for indigenous churches, and the inherently beneficial nature of poetry to help achieve this process. Research includes the study of relevant missiological literature and material acquired by questionnaire. This questionnaire was completed by linguistic field workers involved in Bible translation and by their professional colleagues. The findings of this research indicate that indigenous poetry is inherently valued in a variety of cultures and can be appropriately applied by both indigenous poets and cross-cultural workers to facilitate the contextualisation of Bible translation.

CHAPTER 4 REVELATION PART II

What does Revelation 4 verse 2 mean? In this verse John relates he was in the Spirit when he beheld a throne that stood in heaven. Perhaps the Holy Spirit transported John or his spirit to heaven, or John was seeing a clear vision of what was happening there.

How many verses are in Revelation Chapter 4? This chapter is divided into 11 verses.

Who wrote Revelation 4? The author of the book of Revelation calls himself John (Rev. 1:1; 1:4). The only other clue to the author's identity is that he states he received his visions while on the island of Patmos (Rev.

What is the lesson of Revelation 4? God loved us before we loved Him. He loved us enough to send us His Son so that we can be reconciled by His precious blood. Therefore, it is only fitting that we give Him proper thanks and recognition.

Who was sitting on the throne in Revelation 4:2? Revelation 4-5 identifies God by means of definite descriptions, as the “one seated on the throne” (Rev 4:2), by means of proper names and titles, as “the Lord God Almighty” (Rev 4:8), and by means of indicators, as the one “who was and is and is to come” (Rev 4:8).

What does Revelation 2 verse 4 mean? Having commended the church at Ephesus for its doctrinal integrity and perseverance in the face of adversity, Jesus reveals in verse 4 what He found lacking in the Ephesian church. It had abandoned the love that characterized its early history. What remained was devotion to the truth, but not devotion to the Lord.

What does four symbolize in the Book of Revelation? The four horsemen of the apocalypse are four biblical figures who appear in the Book of Revelation. They are revealed by the unsealing of the first four of the seven seals. Each of the horsemen represents a different facet of the apocalypse: conquest, war, famine, and death.

What is the creature in Revelation 4? In the New Testament book of Revelation 4:6–8, four living beings (Greek: τέτρα, zōion) are seen in John's vision. These appear as a lion, an ox, a man, and an eagle, much as in Ezekiel but in a different order. They have six wings, whereas Ezekiel's four living creatures are described as having four.

What is the meaning of Revelation 4:1-11? Preaching text: Revelation 4:1-11; accompanying text: John 17:1-5. God the Creator. Revelation's vision of the heavenly throne room now introduces people to God, who is the Creator. The scene pictures a rightly ordered universe in which God is at the center.

What is the meaning of blood and water from Jesus side? Critical to understanding this symbolism is the sign of blood and water streaming from Jesus's side as he hangs from the cross in John 19:34–45, where it becomes apparent that the sign represents symbols of Jesus's dual nature: his ability as a mortal to lay down his life as an offering for sin, but his continuing ...

What does the Bible mean when it says you have left your first love? Jesus used this phrase here to remind the church in Ephesus of the esteem, awe, admiration, wonder, and appreciation that was first awakened in their hearts for Him when they received Him as their Savior many years earlier. Like young people who fall in love, the Ephesians fell hard when they first came to Christ.

What does it mean for God to receive glory, honour, and power? The elders ascribe three affirmations to God: glory, honor, and power. Glory is the manifestation of His essence and actions. Honor is reverence for what we see in God. Power is God's ability to execute His plans.

What are the signs of leaving my first love for God? You can go hours or days without having more than a passing thought of Him. You don't have a strong desire to spend time with Him. You don't have a strong hunger for the Word; Bible reading is a “chore”—something to mark off your “to do” list. Spending time in prayer is a burden/duty rather than a delight.
